About the IABA

Founded on May 16, 1940 by a group of distinguished lawyers and jurists representing forty-four professional organizations and seventeen nations of the Western Hemisphere, the Inter-American Bar Association (IABA) is a permanent forum for the exchange of professional views and information among lawyers seeking to promote the rule of law and the protection of democratic institutions in the Americas.

Objectives and Purposes

To establish and maintain relations among national and local organizations of lawyers in the Americas;

To provide a forum for the exchange of views;

To advance the science of jurisprudence, especially the study of comparative law;

To promote uniformity of laws;

To disseminate knowledge of the laws of the Americas;

To promote the rule of law and the administration of justice, and encourage the establishment and maintenance of independent judicial systems in all countries of the Americas;

To preserve and defend human rights and liberties;

To help guarantee to the peoples of this hemisphere the free exercise of their civil and political rights under democratic principles;

To uphold the honor of the legal profession;

To encourage cordial relations and fellowship among lawyers of the Americas; and

To meet in a conference on a regular basis to discuss matters of current interest to the legal profession.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Event postponement or cancellations

IABA at its discretion shall have the right to postpone or cancel the event and shall be liable in no way to the sponsor for losses resulting from such delay or cancellation. IABA will not be liable for fulfilment of this contract to any of the following causes including, but not limited to act of God, public enemy, war, insurrections, strikes, the authority of the law, or for any cause beyond IABA's control. It will however, in the event of it not being able to hold the event for any of the above-named reasons reimburse the sponsor for the amount already paid for the sponsorship. If the seminar or conference is held virtually, IABA will retain an amount of the sponsorship of $1,000 for advertising the company logo in the IABA congress marketing supports.

Image Rights

The participant is aware that his/her image and/or voice may be recorded or filmed during the entire duration of the Congress and, by signing the sponsorship registration form, grants IABA the right to use, reproduce and distribute the concerned images and recordings by any known or unknown means and on all types of media, for an unlimited duration, completely free of charge.

Artwork

The IABA will not make amendments to materials supplied for advertisement, where the materials do not conform to IABA's published requirements. All artworks will be used as supplied.

Mailing Lists

The IABA does not provide mailing list for any of its events.

Website logo placements

Logos attributed to organizations supporting and/or sponsoring a specialist conference or event will appear on the conference website in reference to the sponsorship. Logos within a sponsorship category will be listed in alphabetical order, from top to bottom.
